portunity.Senator Page sends the following letter to the high schools of Vermont, which is self-explanatory:
Washington, D. C., Sept. 1, 1919.
For several years I have found it extremely difficult to secure competent young men whom I might appoint to the military school at West Point or the Naval Academy at Annapolis.It seems to me that this fact does not speak well for the young men of Vermont and I shall be glad if you can find some way to stimulate an ambition on the part of some of the boys in your school to fit themselves to enter the service of their country at one or the other of these institutions.I have been in the habit of holding competitive examinations and appointing the young man who stood the highest in these examinations regardless of his political or personal surroundings.At the last examination held, but one boy appeared and I appointed him, but he failed to meet the test when he came up for the final examinations.I now have two appointments at Annapolis and one at West Point to fill.May I ask that you will in some way find occasion to elaborate upon this matter and at some proper time speak for these wonderfully fine schools and see if you cannot encourage some of your scholars to fit themselves for the training which these schools give.The necessary literature to enable a young man to know what is required as a prerequisite for admission to these schools will be sent to anyone writing me therefor.In short, the requirements for the army are that the appointee must be an actual resident of the state, not under 17 nor over 22 on the date of admission and not less than 5 feet 4 inches at the age of 17. For the navy the candidate must be not less than 16 nor more than 20. In both instances he must possess good health, good habits, good morals and a fair high school education.I sincerely trust that I am not imposing a too heavy burden upon you when I urge that you bring these two schools to the attention of your boys commending the advantages of the schools and at the same time appealing to their patriotism.Cordially yours, C. S. Page.Bennington Jealous of Newport.
The Bennington Banner recently said:"Newport, Vermont's youngest city is showing considerable 'pep' for an infant. During the present week the citizens voted an appropriation of $30,000 for an army-municipal building. Bennington is some bigger than Newport and unless that city of the Magog is in an awfully hard way it doesn't need a municipal building half so badly as Bennington.
Then, too, Bennington that used to support one of the best militia companies in the state has been without representation in the national guard for a number of years.Rural Carrier ExaminationThe United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the County of Orleans to be held at Hardwick, Newport and Orleans on Sept. 27, to fill the position of rural carrier at Greensboro and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other postoffices in this county. The examination will be open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a postoffice in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C.
Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.Admission of women to this examination will be limited to those who are unmarried and to the wives of soldiers and sailors serving in the present war.Valuable Tanning Material.
United States government's experts have listed 12 woods, 102 barks, nine leaves, three roots and 17 fruits and seeds that grow in Latin America as yielding tanning materials of industrial value.PREMIUM AWARDS*ORLEANS COUNTY FAIR
